

From: JAMES G. EVANS
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/5/01 2:43pm
Subject: Sellout

The "settlement" was a sell-out. Microsoft has used every possible trick with the software to attempt to monopolize every aspect of computer use right down to how one can get on the internet and made the use of other software difficult if not impossible. The bundling of programs will finally drive out other competitors who cannot make their programs "free".

Thanx for nothing!

<jamesgevens@netscape.net> <jamesgevens@worldnet.att.net>